

THE TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL
POTOMAC RIVER
SACRED HARP
SINGING CONVENTION

A traditional and powerful singing of American shape-note hymns, fusing tunes, and anthems in unaccompanied four-part harmony from The Sacred Harp

WASHINGTON, D.C. AREA
April 6 & 7, 2013

The Great Falls Grange, 9818 Georgetown Pike (Route 193), Great Falls, Virginia

Saturday, April 6, 10:00 AM - 3:30 PM: All-Day Singing and Dinner on the Grounds

Registration begins at 9:30 AM. Please bring plenty of prepared food to share, as you are able.

Sunday, April 7, 10:00 AM - 3:30 PM: All-Day Singing and Dinner on the Grounds

Registration begins at 9:30 AM. Please bring plenty of prepared food to share, as you are able.

Singing from the new Shenandoah Harmony will be offered in the 3rd session (before lunch) each day.

ffff

All are welcome: beginners, experienced singers, & listeners !
No admission charge: free-will offering

ffff

The Sacred Harp (1991 Edition) tunebooks will be available for loan and purchase.

For convention information or to volunteer, contact John W. deRe at jdelre@visuallink.com or call 540-955-2660 or Mary Helen Dupree at mhd33@georgetown.edu

For lodging or transportation information, contact Joni Seidenstein at PRSHSC@gmail.com

Potomac River Sacred Harp web site: <http://shapenotes.com>

Potomac River Sacred Harp Singing Convention web site: <http://www.his.com/sabcl/FRC/>

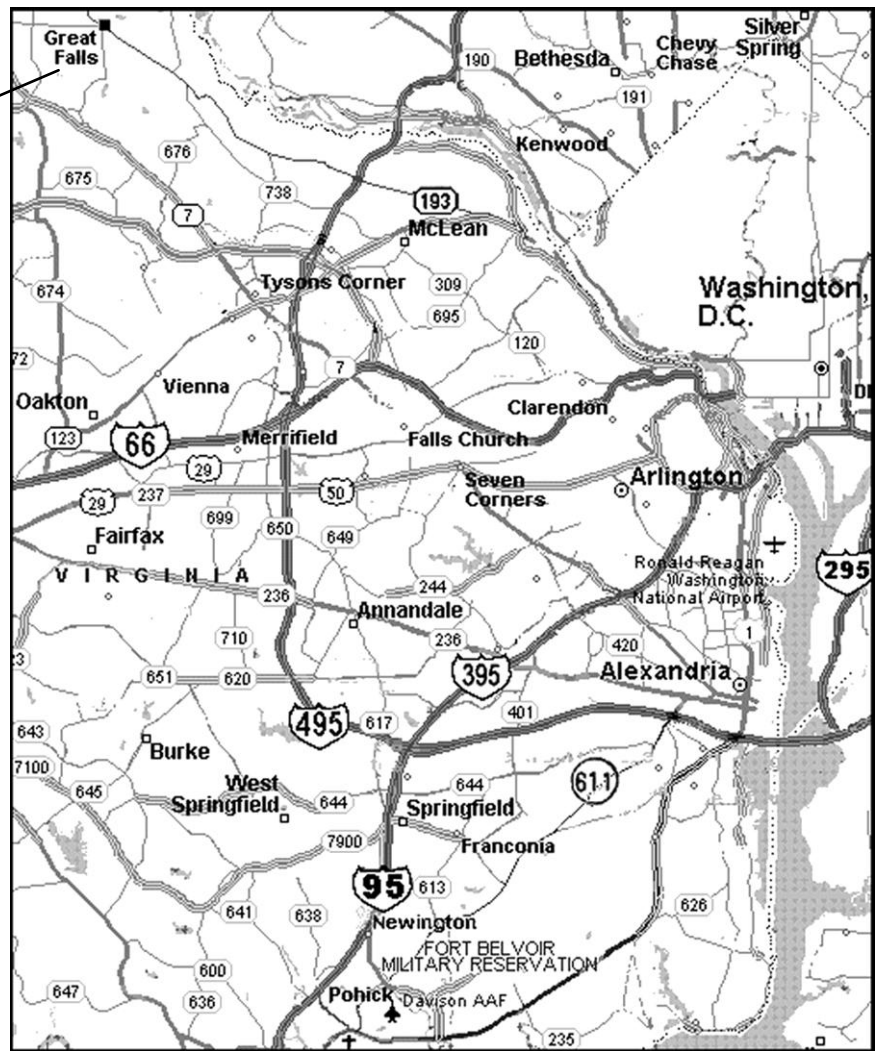

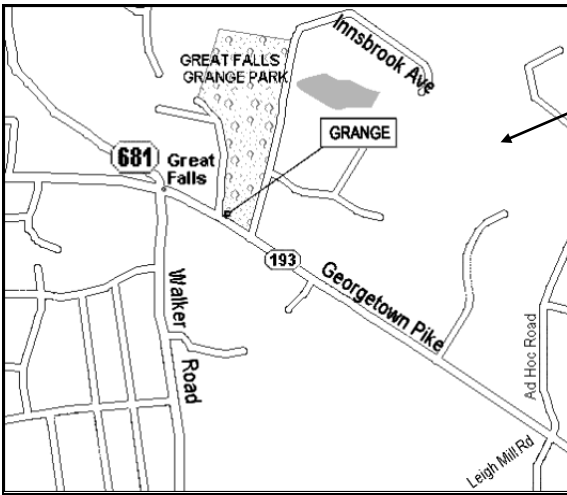

Directions and other information on the reverse

Children are welcome. However, parents are responsible for arranging supervision for their own children, as no childcare will be provided.

Sponsored by The Folklore Society of Greater Washington

Flyer designed by Miriam A. Kilmer. Shape-note Logo © 1995 by Miriam A. Kilmer; please copy it only in conjunction with the flyer.

Recycled  Paper

The Great Falls Grange: 9818

Georgetown Pike (Rte. 193). This classic public assembly hall, a product of the Grange Movement, was completed in 1929.

Directions: A. If coming from I-495 (Beltway), exit at Virginia Exit 44 onto Rte. 193, Georgetown Pike; proceed west toward Great Falls, VA. (If coming south on I-495 from MD, you must exit onto a right service lane just after crossing the Potomac River.) Travel west on Rte. 193 toward Great Falls for 6.2 miles to the red-brick Grange on the right, just prior to the Village shopping center. B. If approaching from the west on Rte. 7, turn eastward onto Rte. 193 at Dranesville and go 3.1 miles east to Great Falls Village and continue 0.2 mile to the Grange on the left.

Park in lots and spaces for the Grange only.